Grip ledges

Kitchen planning.

Simple, elegant and discreet. Anyone who finds the handleless kitchen or surface-mounted grip ledge too obtrusive has come to the right place here. The comprehensive selection of our standard units ranging over all heights, widths and functions is at your disposal. This provides a full range of planning freedom.

In detail:

All models with a cubic geometry that matches the purist planning style are combinable.

You can find all the information about the individual models, surfaces and colours through Kitchen world High gloss – Matt – Laminate – Wood.
